up the Launch Webcast, he turns up the amplifier. Don't be surprised if your guest looks you up when they get back to thank you for the recommendation. The souvenir booklets are kept for years, and referred to when planning the next trip to the area, so if you'd like to advertise in it, dial 321-Liftoff (321-543-8633) and ask Ozzie about advertising in the booklets.

Launch Host Ozzie Osband is a local volunteer who sets up a small amplifier, hands out free souvenir booklets, and provides 'Launch Audio' for the folks who come out. He gives a short lecture at T Minus 30 minutes about what's going up, and where to look. At T Minus 15 minutes, when the Launch Provider brings

If you get a Stip for selling them a ticket to the Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex, then more power to you, but if it's just the average family looking for their once in a lifetime look at a rocket launch, suggest they visit Space View Park in Titusville FL.
 The park is directly across the Indian River from Launch Complex 39A at the Kennedy Space Center.

'I'll bet your customers made their vacation plans for the Orlando Attractions Area without even knowing if there was a rocket launch going on while they would be in the area. Once they arrived, of course, there's no way of stopping them from finding out! That's when they ask your advice on where to view the launch from.
